Research design and study content

Simon Hay, Elizabeth Cromwell, and Jonathan King conceived and planned the study. Elizabeth Cromwell, Elex Hill, Katie Donkers, and Kevin Kwong obtained, extracted, processed, and geotagged the study data. Lucas Earl constructed covariate data layers. Chris Schmidt and Kevin Kwong wrote the computer code and designed the statistical analyses. Chris Schmidt carried out the statistical analyses with input from Elizabeth Cromwell, Simon Hay, and Robert C Reiner Jr. Kimberly Johnson, Katie Donkers, and Elex Hill prepared figures. Elizabeth Cromwell wrote the first draft of the manuscript with assistance from Simon Hay and Jonathan King, and all authors contributed to subsequent revisions. All authors provided intellectual inputs into aspects of this study.
